INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

Lloyd Riser took a run up to Santa Rosa Saturday.

John McGill is sight-seeing in the metropolis this week.

Albert Rossi transacted business at Eldridge one day this week.

Mrs. G. Taylor was a visitor to San Francisco last Wednesday.

Thos. Baines, our real estate man, was in San Francisco on Monday.

H. G. Swain, postoffice inspector, paid an official visit to this place Saturday.

Mrs. W. H. Fields and son went to Oakland Wednesday morning, where they will visit relatives.

Phil Rossi has returned from Adams Springs after sojourning at that popular health resort for several days.

Martin Martin, after spending several days taking in the sights in the metropolis, returned to his home here Sunday.

Frank A. Riser returned to his home here Wednesday morning after an extended hunting trip in the northern part of the State.

Several carloads of lumber consigned to the El Verano lumber yard arrived here over the Southern Pacific from Willits last Tuesday.

Louie Kearney of Santa Rosa was in town Tuesday. Louie has a crew of men this week baling hops in his large hop field above town.

Paul Vannucchi of Verano was one of the many El Veranoites who took in the Baldwin-Burns boxing contest in San Francisco last Friday evening.

W. H. Moultbrop, traveling auditor of the Southern Pacific Company, made his semi-annual inspection of accounts at the company's office here one day last week.

A special Southern Pacific train passed through here Saturday with crowded coaches of Shriners en route to Santa Rosa. The train was made up of fifteen handsome coaches.

Mrs. Rose Peterson, who has been seriously ill for several months, is now able to be out and is enjoying the sunshine these bright, sunny days. Her many friends will be glad to know this.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Chance returned from their honeymoon on Wednesday and the bride and groom were warmly received by their friends here. The newlyweds will settle down to housekeeping and reside here permanently.

R. E. Mullen was a visitor to the metropolis Sunday.

Jimmie Sterling of Sonoma was in town last Saturday. Jimmie was looking at several young race horses at this place and predicts a bright future for them. Jimmie has been hired to train these high blooded animals.

There promises to be big doings in town Saturday evening. A high class vaudeville show to be given by Pop Rice's minstrel troupe of fifteen star peformers and a dance at El Verano Villa are one of the attractions.

Dr. Parramore of Boyes Hot Springs took advantage of our late train service last Monday morning en route to San Francisco. This 8.30 morning Southern Pacific train is being well patronized by our traveling public.

Among the long list of would-be Supervisors who were on the ballot at the primary in San Francisco in the recent election we notice the name of Henry Hackmier, who is well known here but who was defeated and is classed among the also rans.

On Friday last while the afternoon freight train crew were switching cars at the Southern Pacific depot here, one of Wells, Fargo & Co's trucks was badly damaged by being struck by one of the cars. A number of young boys who make it a habit of loitering around the depot grounds were playing on the truck when it was struck by the car but singular to relate the lads escaped being ground to pieces beneath the heavily-laden train. The narrow escape of the lads ought to serve as a warning to the parents of these boys, who should be forbidden to play around the depot grounds. The damaged truck was taken to A. W. Weaver's sanitarium and repaired and is now as good as ever.

ARCHIBALD MCKIVER.
El Verano, Oct. 4, 1911.

Will Draw a Large Crowd.

Billey Rice's Minstrel troupe of fifteen artists, and all of them stars in their profession, will draw a big house at El Verano Villa this (Saturday) evening, as everybody is talking of attending. It is seldom the people of this valley have an opportunity of attending a minstrel performance such as Billy Rice's troupe will introduce here tonight. The admission price of 25 cents will give everybody an opportunity to attend the show at small cost. The preformance will be followed by dancing and the music will be the best ever engaged here for a similar purpose.

SONOMA WINES WIN GRAND PRIX.

It Was the Highest Award at the Exposition Placed by the Italian Government at the Disposal of Judges.

Word has just been received from Turin, Italy, that the elaborate wine exhibit of the Italian-Swiss Colony, whose vineyards and wine cellars are located in Sonoma county, was awarded the grand prix, the highest award placed by the executive committee and the Italian government at the disposal of the jury. Thousands of samples of wines from every section of the globe were offered in competition. The jury was composed of some of the most famous wine testers in Europe.

California wines have won medals and diplomas in former French, German, Italian and Belgian expositions, but this is the first time in the history of the industry that they have reached the top of the ladder.

A Youthful Traveler.

Julius Cope, 6 years old, who has lived all of those years with his aunt in the city of Guaymas, Mexico, arrived in San Francisco Tuesday from that city, having traveled the entire distance under the personal guidance of about 17 state railroad policemen. Julius does not appear to be more then 4 years old but this trip from the quaint Mexican city through a highly developed agricultural country to our modern city sure opened his eyes. He possesses today a railroad education that would make many a high school student envious.

The treatment accorded him by the railroad police through his entire journey seems to have made the deepest impression on his young mind. The lad speaks both Mexican and English fluently for his years and had no trouble in wording the thousands of questions which he put to the police officers who looked after him on his journey. Clasped in his father's arms at the Oakland Pier (he had not seen his father since infancy) his one ambition was to become a railroad policeman when he "got big."

Looking out for the needs of the little, lone travelers, is by no means a great part of the duties of the railroad policeman. Appointed by the governor of the state, paid by the Southern Pacific company, these men act as protectors of the railroad company's property and as auxiliary county officers, being subject to the call of all police officials should there be need for them. In looking out for the property of the company they see to it that the passengers on the trains, and those waiting at stations for trains, are not molested by any troublesome parties that may be on the train or at the station. It is required of them that they have committed to memory all information relative to the division over which they are assigned.

The state railroad police are prohibited the use of tobacco and liquor while on duty. Intoxication means immediate dismissal without any hearing. They are prohibited the use of firearms, except when it becomes necessary for them to protect their own lives and the rules of the company in this particular call upon them to use all efforts to prevent any rough handling of a prisoner or unruly passenger. Only in desperate cases is the use of a club authorized. They are not detectives in any respect, and are required always to wear their uniforms when on duty. They are trained in "first aid" work and have shown their ability many times in this respect.

Christmas Bazar and Entertainment.

A number of our young people are rehearsing for a fine dramatic entertainment to be given in Union Hall, November 2d, for the benefit of Trinity Episcopal church. The Ladies Guild is sewing for the Bazar to be held at the same time and at which some novel features will be presented.

GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT HERE.

It Will be Started For the Purpose of Improving the County Road Between Sonoma and Kenwood.

A committee of citizens composed of F. T. Duhring, Mayor M. E. Cummings, C. T. Ryland, and H. H. Granice went to Santa Rosa last Tuesday and had a conference with Supervisor Blair Hart and other members of the Board of Supervisors in regard to improving the condition of the county road between this city and Kenwood.

This stretch of road is in bad shape owing to the number of high-speed automobiles which have passed over it the past summer, and the object of the conference with the Supervisors was to devise ways and means of not only improving this particular piece of road but all the main traveled roads in this valley.

The citizens of Sonoma Valley have woke up to a realization that our roads must be put in better shape than they are at present.

It will take a pile of money to put the roads in first-class shape in this valley, and as the road fund for the Agua Caliente, San Luis and Glen Ellen districts is totally inadequate to do this it seems to us the only solution to the problem of good roads in the Sonoma Valley or any where else for that matter in this county is a bond proposition. But that of course is for the people to decide. Else in course of time the roads in this valley may be strewn with busted automobile tires, wagon spokes and human bones.

The Hay Market

Somers & Co. in their weekly bulletin of the 3d inst say:

"Owing to the heavy arrivals of alfalfa hay of late, the receipts during the week have increased over the week previous, a total of 4074 tons being reported as compared with 3591 tons the week previous. Arrivals by cars have been light but water arrivals are heavy. The fact that alfalfa is being shipped in such quantities has caused the market for this article to remain rather weak, although it is the general opinion that there will be a material reaction as soon as we have a heavy rain which would prevent the cutting and harvesting of later crops and necessitate shipments being taken from storage.

"The market for grain hay is without especial feature, although prices remain firm, there being a tendency for the poorer grades of hay to advance in sympathy with the better qualities which are now being held at extreme figures. Trade for hay in the interior of the State has been naturally quite light during the harvest season as almost every district raises some little hay, but inquiries are now commencing to come from the consuming districts with indications that their demands will be heavy. Prices now are firm in these sections and those familar with conditions predict a material advance.

"Straw continues in fairly good demand and prices high on account of the fact that there was so little baled this season. Oat and wheat straw cannot be used extensively on this market, however, the demand being exclusively for fancy grade barley straw free from chaff.

Rummage Sale.

A rummage sale will be held by the ladies of the Episcopal Church next Friday and Saturday afternoons in the building formerly occupied by Fussel's fruit store. All friends are earnestly requested to donate articles for the sale, and the public to come and buy.

THE RAILROAD AND THE STRIKERS.

Statement by E. E. Calvin, Vice President of the S. P. Co., Who Gives Railroad Side of the Question

Mr. E. E. Calvin, Vice President of the Southern Pacific Company, in an interview on the strike now pending among certain railway employees, said last Tuesday:

"It is regretted, in face of the large number of employees who are approaching the pension age and who are prevented by the age limit from securing employment elsewhere, that they should be drawn into a strike instituted in violation of the by-laws of their respective orders, and especially since it is wholly unjustified. In fairness we are constrained to say that we do not believe any great number of our mechanical employes are dissatisfied with their working agreements, or favor leaving their employment under such conditions. Extraneous influences have been brought to bear upon them and they have not been free to give the subject---an undertaking of such serious consequences to them and to their familes---the temperate consideration it should receive.

"The company has evidenced a willingness to meet with all the various crafts as in the past. Satisfactory results have followed from this procedure in respect to both the Southern Pacific Company and its employees, and no substantial reason obtains or has been advanced why the same results would follow a continuation of this policy. The demands made by the federation are of such a character that to grant them would entail an enormous financial loss and at the same time practically relinquish to a committee of employees managerial authority and control over the mechanical department, a concession the company could not make without seriously imparing its ability to properly discharge its obligations to the public as a common carrier.

"Believing in the rectitude of its position, and at the same time regretting that hardship may follow to those employees directly involved, the company has maintained a course that in its judgment was the only one afforded it within the bounds of justice, fairness, and reason.

Sea Gives Up a Valuable Watch

We have read about the sea "giving up its dead," but it is rarely so with valuables which have been engulfed in its capacious maw. The Santa Rosa Press Democrat, however, relates that "a year ago last Decoration Day the late Jacob Schelling of that city, lost his gold watch while landing from a boat at Bodega Bay. The watch slipped from his pocket into the water and despite an exhaustive search it could not be found. Perry De Bolt and the members of Mr. Schelling's family were with him at the time.

A few days ago H. Weber of Petaluma, formerly of Santa Rosa, was walking along the shore at Bodega Bay and picked up Mr. Schelling's watch. He opened the case and there found the name of the owner and returned it to Mrs. Schelling.

The watch was valued by Mr. Schelling as it was a gift to him by the A. O. U. W. lodge, to which he belonged. The timepiece has been turned over to professor David Glickman and in a few days it will be running as good as ever. Of course, the machinery was rusty on account of the watch having been exposed to the water and elements for eighteen months.

The Passing of H. W. Stofen.

H. W. Stofen, brother of the late Capt. P. N. Stofen of this place and Capt. Jack Stofen of San Francisco, is dead. He passed away at his home in Point Richmond last Saturday at the age of 69 years. The deceased was a native of Germany and was widely known on this coast, having lived in this State for many years. The cause of Mr. Stofen's death was the result of an accident which befell him on Friday of last week. The deceased, who was employed at the California Wine Association's plant in Richmond, had quit work for the day and while rushing to catch a passenger train on the Belt railroad fell from a crossbeam a distance of twenty feet to a concreate floor beneath and had his skull fractured.

Equal Suffrage, Because Woman's Fate is the World's Fate.

J. H. Francis, the city superintendent of schools of Los Angeles, is one of the strongest supporters of suffrage in that city. He said in an address given before the California Political Equality League, that "Woman's ballot will not achieve the millenium. It will probably work no great reforms, or, at least for but a short time. It may cause confusion, but women still must be given the ballot for the sake of the race, for the women's fate is the world's fate."

"Suffrage is only a part of the age-long struggle towards freedom. Government throughout the worl l's history has been a struggle for power by some, a struggle to keep in power by others. When we refuse to give an individual freedom to make the most of his or her environments we refuse them a full share of life, and so their disenfranchisement is to women."

Mr. and Mrs. John Batto returned to their home here Saturday evening after a week's pleasant visit with friends in Napa.

R. W. Vernon has completed a pretty cottage home on the Graves place near here, where he will reside with his family. The Vernons formerly resided in Lakeview, Oregon.

After a two-week's visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Batto, in this place, Mrs. Aug. Figone, accompanied by her children and Miss Mary Batto and Mrs. Arthur Batto, returned to her home in the metropolis last Thursday.

Miss May Bosch of San Francisco visited her parents in this place Sunday, returning to the metropolis in the afternoon of the same day.

Miss Katie Bosch of El Verano was a welcome visitor to Vineburg Saturday and Sunday last. During her brief sojourn here she was the guest of her parents, Captain and Mrs. Peter Bosch.

Mr. and Mrs. David Voight of this place celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day last Wednesday. The couple were married on October 4th, 1861. A number of relatives and invited guests attended the golden wedding reception of this worthy old couple and it was an event long to be remembered by them.

Easy Jim:

Will be unable to assist you this week, as I am having a good time in this part of our glorious State of California, and I am kept busy writing postal cards. Will leave here tomorrow to see if I can find a few apples. Only saw a few of the Vineburg sports here. Regards to all. I am about to float down to the beach to take a dip.

Yours in haste,
Fannie Ferndale.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system.

THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who nasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

HOWARD KNIGHT IS NOW A BENEDICT.

Was Married Thursday to Miss Shirley F. Cornsin of Glen Ellen.

Russell Howard Knight, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. N. R. Knight of Schellville and Miss Shirley F. Cornsin of Glen Ellen took out a marriage license in the county clerk's office in Santa Rosa last Wednesday and the wedding took place at the home of the bride Thursday.

The young couple, after a brief honeymoon, will make their home on the groom's ranch near Schellville, which he recently purchased from Mont. Akers for $10,000.

An Early Rain Which Portends an Early Winter.

The rain which fell throughout the valley last Saturday night and Sunday morning was sufficient to lay the dust and to put the street and road sprinklers out of commission for the balance of the week. It did no harm to the grape crop, which is rapidly maturing and will soon be in the hands of the pickers and winemakers. The rain at this season of the year portends an early winter, however, and behooves our vineyardists to get busy.

Guardian Seeks Discharge.

Charles Dal Poggetto, guardian of the estate of Antonio Ciutti, an incompetent, has filed a petition asking that he be granted his discharge from that position. He has a balance of $99.29 in his possession and states that his ward is in bad condition and liable to remain a public charge for the remainder of his life. The petitioner asks that the sureties on his bond be released. Attorney H. P. Mathewson represents the petitioner.

A $50,000 DAMAGE SUIT THE LATEST

Sheriff Smith and His Bondsmen are Sued for that Sum by A. Salo, Who Claims False Imprisonment.

The bringing of a $50,000 damage suit for false imprisonment against Sheriff Jack Smith and his bondsmen by A. Salo in the Superior Court of this county created quite a furore at the county seat Thursday.

The complaint states that the plaintiff was arrested at Monte Rio in October, 1910, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, and he was put in jail at Santa Rosa where he remained until January without any complaint being filed against him. He also claims that he was arrested without a warrant, and when he was finally tried by a jury he was promply acquitted.

The complaint names as co-defendants the Sheriff's bondsmen, The Title Guaranty Company and the Pacific Surety Company both of which are sued for $25,000 each.

Salo was arrested on suspicion that he had committed an assault with a deadly weapon and after his long detention was tried by a jury and acquitted. The alleged facts are set up in both complaints filed on Thursday.

Held, Weldon and Gonsalves are the attorneys for the defendant. The suit is likely to attract considerable attention when it comes to trial. Some serious questions are involved under the law.

Baseball Sunday.

Tomorrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2:15 o'clock the Sonoma Giants will cross bats with the fast P. D. Q. nine of Alameda on the Sonoma diamond. A good contest is expected. The management of the home team promises a big surprise to the fans.

GESTURES IN CUBA.

How Natives Salute Friends, Call Cabs and End Arguments.

The man just back from Cuba raised his right hand hat high and wiggled his fingers when he and a friend passed a mutual acquaintance.

"What's the matter with your nerves, Jim?" asked his friend, who was a friend of standing enough to warrant such a question. "Those Havana cigars been shaking your steady hand? Or was it the revelry of the evening band concert on the esplanade or the tortilla or wherever they hold the concerts?"

"No, to both questions," replied the friend from Havana.. "If you are referring to the wiggle of my well shaped fingers I will set your mind at rest at once. It is the Cuban form of salutation. They all do it in Cuba, from the president to the man who can't raise the necessary price of a lottery ticket. To them it means the same as our formal nod or hat doffing.

"The study of gestures would be interesting. Down there you run across some funny ones. They have gestures for everything. For instance, you wish to hail a cabman. Here, of course, you might raise your hand and beckon to him. In Havana you could do that all night and only get an empty stare. They wouldn't understand. Their summons for a cab is to crook the arm with the elbow rather near the body. The hand and fingers are held horizontally, palm down. This is not all. To get results the forearm must be moved forward and backward with the elbow steady, the thumb leaving the fingers during the motion somewhat with the movement of a fish's mouth opening and closing.

"There is no surer way of stopping an argument than by doubling your fist and extending your forefinger as nearly horizontally as possible. Then the hand is moved as you would wag your head. The token is a period, the complete finish of any conversation, business transaction or whatever is under consideration."—Chicago News.

How Sparks Are Formed.

Sparks are formed by the expansion, under the action of heat, of air contained in the minute cells of wood, coal or other burning substance and also by the evolution of gas in the same cells. When the elastic force of the imprisoned gas or air is greater than the tenacity of the material can hold in check, then the small cells or cavities burst and the flying splinters rise as sparks. A sharp crack commonly accompanies the explosion and continues as hundreds of these cells burst in rapid succession. The quick flight of these burning particles acts as a fan to increase the flame, and when the substance burns so far that no more flame is formed the remaining carbon ash is kept in a state of incandescence by the draft of air. When all the carbon has been consumed the spark dies out, as is evident if we watch a falling spark on a dark night.

Waked Him Up.

In a rural district of Forfarshire a young plowman once went courting on a Saturday night. In vain he racked his brain for some interesting topic. He could call up no subject at all suitable for the occasion—not one sentence could he utter—and for two long hours he sat on in silent despair.

The girl herself was equally silent. She, no doubt, remembered the teaching of the old Scotch song, "Men maun be the first to speak," and she sat patiently regarding him with demure surprise.

At last John suddenly exclaimed: "Jenny, there's a feather on yer apron!"

"I widna hae wondered if there had been twa," replied Jenny, "for I've been sittin' aside a goose a' nicht."—London Tit-Bits.

Where He Missed It.

"Ah," he said, as they were exploring among the rocks back of the hotel, "here is 'Lovers' lane.' Let's go through."

"That deep place there, where it is so dark, with the steep, rocky sides?"

"Yes. Come on."

"I'm afraid you would kiss me if we were down there alone together."

"No, honest!"

"Well, then, we may as well remain up here."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Familiar Proverbs.

"It is a wise child that knows his own father," is from the Odyssey; "Familiarity breeds contempt," is a saying of Plutarch; "Set a thief to catch a thief," is of Cato's coinage; "One swallow doesn't make a summer," is cited by Plato as already proverbial, as was "His bark is worse than his bite," when Quintus Curtius wrote it down.
